Deborah Ann Majestic of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan passed away peacefully on June 15, 2017 at Beaumont Hospital in Troy, Michigan with family members by her side.

She was born on June 15, 1957 in Bowling Green, Ohio to Dean and Grace Augenstein.

She graduated from Bowling Green High School and attended Bowling Green State University.

She worked for the Estée Lauder Company in Toledo and then moved to Plymouth, MI as she advanced with the company. It was at Torch Lake in northern Michigan where she met her husband, David Majestic. They married on August 13, 1992 in Alaska and made their home in Bloomfield Hills.

Lake Majestic was born in 1996, and he was the light of Debbi's life. He is a junior at American University in Washington, D.C. Another special part of her life was her dog, Yodi.

Debbi is survived by her father, Dean Augenstein, and his wife, Joan Morgan-Augenstein. She also has a niece, Emily, and a nephew, Jack, who are her brother's children. Her uncle, Allen "Bus" Augenstein; her father-in-law, Phillip Majestic; and her brother-in-law, Brian Majestic, also survive.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Grace Augenstein, as well as her beloved brother, Brad Augenstein. Her mother-in-law, Leona Majestic, and her sister-in-law, Lori Majestic, also preceded her.

Memorial contributions can be made to Lake Majestic for education expenses.

There will be a Celebration of Life later this summer.
