Jennifer Lee Coffman, 42, of Waterville, Ohio, and formerly of Bowling Green, Ohio, died Sunday, June 25, 2000, in the Hospice of Northwest Ohio, Perrysburg, Ohio.

Born Aug. 7, 1957, in Urbana, Ohio, she was the daughter of George Richard Horton and Joyce Bennett Horton.

Jennifer graduated from Bowling Green High School in 1975, graduated cum laude with a bachelor of arts degree in communication from Bowling Green State University in 1978 and, in 1991, she also received her certificate in legal assisting technology from the University of Toledo. She met her husband of 21 years, Robb C. Coffman, while in college, and they married Sept. 30, 1978. Jennifer was a litigation specialist and casualty claims manager for the Nationwide Insurance Company since 1996, and was previously a multiline claims specialist for the Motorists Insurance Company from 1979 to 1991. She was an active member of Waterville United Methodist Church, serving as the secretary of the staff/parish committee, as a junior church teacher and as a nursery volunteer. She was also a former Girl Scout leader in Waterville, but the primary focus of her life was her family.

Surviving are her husband, Robb C. Coffman, of Waterville, Ohio; her four children, Brady R. Coffman, Dana J. Coffman, Beau R. Coffman and Anna L. Coffman, all of Waterville, Ohio; her parents, G. Richard and Joyce Horton, of Bowling Green, Ohio; her brother and sister-in-law, Gary R. and Denice Horton, of Valley City, Ohio; and her niece and nephews, Heather, Jeremy and Jesse Horton.

Family services will be private and there will be no visitation. A memorial service celebrating her life will be held in Bowling Green, Ohio, on July 15, 2000.

The family suggests that tributes to Jennifer be in the form of contributions to the Waterville United Methodist Church or the Hospice of Northwest Ohio. Assisting the family with the arrangements is the WELLS FUNERAL HOME, Waterville, Ohio.
